MAY HAMPER PROSPECTS
In this connection satisfaction is voiced in Geneva over assurances emanating from official circles in Washington that the United States will do its utmost to make the present conference a success. If the United States were to particle pate in or indorse a special naval conference at this time, it is declared it might seriously impair the prospects of reaching practical results at Geneva.

In trustworthy quarters the view is held that Japan, being convinced that naval matters can be handled apart from land arms.

preparations for an eventual conference or conferences to deal with reduction of armaments will be long and complicated. There has been no manifestation of enthusiasm over the Japanese suggestion for the holding of a separate three-power naval conference by the United States, Great Britain and Japan.

Responsible opinion is that alle the nations which have accepted the invitation to participate in the work of the preparatory disarmament commission should loyally see the commission through to the end, each contributing what it can to finding solutions for the problems in which the world has such passionate interest.

The collection of records is Salem is believed to be among the most complete in America, All are in book form, carefully preserved. As a matter of the conturies ago. In financial matters, terms of old English currency are used. As a matter of historical reference, however, all of the records are carefully preserved.

Local antiquarians have searched high and low for the records from 1624 to 1634, but have as yet obtained no trace of them. It is hoped that they may emerge from some hiding place, momentes of a long-forgotten age.

Tirade on Calles Test Church-State Rights

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
PACHUCA, HIDALGO (Mex.)
May 22.—Pollowing close upon the heels of the expulsion of Archbishop Caruana, apostolic delegate to Mexico, by the government, the arrest and trial here of Mgr.
Jose Jesus Enrique de Zarate, bishop of Huejutla, on a charge of sedition, has become the outstanding issue between the Catholic Church and the government in the controversy that has arisen between the church and State.

While the Caruana case occupied the attention of the government and the prochurchmen, during the time between the issuance of the expulsion order and his actual departure, all eyes have now been turned to this city, as it is expected the trial will decide the paramount question whether the church has the right to express an opinion of the government or whether the government has the right to mingle in the affairs of the church.

INTEREST AROUSED

INTEREST AROUSED

Pachuca, one of the wealthiest gold and silver mining camps in the country, has temporarily put aside its industry to watch the course of the trial. Mgr. Zarate was arrested at Huejuila, as a result of several pastoral letters he issued wherein he stated in terms vibrating with religious fervor that President Calles was overstepping his bounds by his edicts in religious affairs, adding that such action was cowardly and announcing his determination to defend his faith even if it resulted in his execution. He requested that if his life was forfeited for his utterances, he be shot in the breast and not in the back, "as is the custom here," he said.

Zarate's letters were turned over the Attorney-General at Mexico ity, who in turn referred the case to the Federal Court in this State. He court ordered Zarate's arrest. He requested that if his life was forfoited for his utterances, he be shot in the breast and not in the back, "as is the custom here." he said.

Zarate's letters were turned overto the Attorney-General at Mexico City, who in turn referred the case to the Federal Court in this State. The court ordered Zarate's arrest. He arrived here under heavy guard yesterday morning. When brought up for hearing soon after his arrival, he was at first refused ball, but the court later released him under a surety bond of $500 peecs.

SUSTAINS UTTERANCES

During the hearing Zarate sustained his original utterance, assuming full responsibility for the statements in the letters. He maintained he was not seeking to abolish or amend the Constitution, but sought only to amend those articles of the Magna Charta dealing with religious affairs.

Copies of the pastoral appeal were sent to bishops of all dioceses throughout the republic.

Hundreds of school children have just finished one of the most onerous jobs they have ever undertaken here. The high school athetic association needed money, so the boys and girls of the classes volunteered to work and produce funds.

The students chose their own tasks. Two girls of the graduating class earned their part of the donation by shining shoes all day at a local bootblacking shop, several other girls washed automobiles at a garage. Several girls performed household duties and helped clean house—that bane of the average woman, not to mention her husband.

Announcement To Contestants

As a result of the widespread interest in The Times ad-writing contest, an additional business concern—"The Easy Housekeeping Shop"—has decided to take part in it. Every week till the close of the contest five or more prizes will be given for the best ads submitted for any of the three popular products handled by this concern. These are:

(1) "The Easy Vacuum Electric Washer
(2) "The Utenco Automatic Ironer
(3) "Premier Duplex—First among Cleaners"

The many talking points about these articles—what they save in labor and time, the economy, their effect on health, how they take the drudgery out of housework and make it simple and pleasant—all these make it interesting to write ads about them. There are 20 "Easy Housekeeping Shops" in Southern California, more than likely one in your own town. Step in and ask for circular matter, or call at

ARRANGED GREAT BRIBE:
One felon prospect, a bank robber, made arrangements for the payment of a $10.000 bribe to win him a parole, but at the last moment political pressure was applied instead and the $10.000 went glimmering, the prosecutors charged.
Foremost among those named in the new evidence, which is supported by documentary proof, is Maj. M. A. Messlein, whom State's Attorney Crowe has called the head of the pardon mill.
"This pardon broker made a present of $25.000 in stock in his company, the Major Engineering Company, to Will Colvin, czar of the State Parole Board," Mr. Crowe said. "By his own statement Messlein has jumped $000 convicts out of Illinois prisons." The new charges were supported by the statement of William Foehr, former superintendent of the tailoring shops at Menard pententiary, who confessed himself the inside man, the "canvasser." Substantiation also was obtained in letters obtained from Messlein's files. Two weeks of secret investigation brought results and the whole matter will be presented Tuesday to the special grand jury.

An inventory and accounting shows that the tremendous sacrifices made in our recent Auction failed to raise money enough with which to pay

A substantial amount is required which must be in my hands not later than June 25th, consequently I have ordered the Auction to continue until the necessary amount is raised.

The only means of raising the required funds quickly is to again offer this exquisite stock of diamonds, jewelry, precious stones and ilverware to the highest bidders, piece by piece.

A Hundred Million Dollars

YEARS ago, Studebaker started to work to this goal—the manufacture of a car of superb quality on the One-Profit basis that won the world to Ford in the low-price field.

To gain it, we plowed the earnings of years back into our business. We declared only reasonable dividends. We used more than half of all earnings to develop plants and machinery that stand out today as world models. As a result we have one hundred million dollars in net assets concentrated on the economical production of One-Profit Studebakers.

We have achieved this without expensive financing, mergers or other methods which increase overhead. Studebaker has not a dollar of bonded debt nor any bank loans.

Studebaker's unique facilities

Few motor car "manufacturers" have foundries, forges, etc., to make their own engines—yet one-fifth of an automobile's cost is in the engine. Even fewer build their own bodies yet one-third of a car's cost is in the body.

Studebaker builds all its own bodies, all engines, all clutches, gear sets, springs, differentials, steering gears, brakes, axles, gray-iron castings and drop forgings. Only Studebaker in the fine-car field enjoys such complete manufacturing facilities.

One-Profit value

These facilities enable Studebaker to manufacture quality cars on a One-Profit basiseliminating outside profits. The savings thus effected are passed on to Studebaker owners in the form of higher quality and

Unit-Built construction

Studebaker facilities result, too, in cars designed, engineered and built as units. The hundreds of parts in a Studebaker function as a smooth-working unit, resulting in scores of thousands of miles of excess trans-portation, greater riding comfort and higher resale values.

Always kept up-to-date

Direct manufacturing control enables Studebaker to keep cars constantly up-to-date. We add improvements regardless of the calendar—we do not save them up for spectacular annual announcements which make cars artificially obsolete. For a complete illustrated story of One-Profit manufacture and for a beautiful colored catalog of Standard Six Studebakers, drop a postal or a letter to The Studebaker Corporation of America, South Bend, Ind. On account of the difficulty with water, company officials say.

On account of the difficulty with water, company officials have decided to turn the finishing of the well ever to one of the larger companies. Tentative arrangements are already on foot to coment the well and make a thorough test at the present depth and to drill deeper if necessary. It is expected that work will be resumed in this well in the near future. The hole is in fine condition, 2620 feet deep, with eight-and-one-quarter-inch casing down to 2200 feet.

Calvin Coolidge, President of the gamisation. However, those whe United States, in addressing the American Legion National Convention at Omaha, said. "The destiny of the nation for the next half century is in your hands." Surely, if an erganisation has the confidence of our national leader to that extent, every World War veteran should be most desirous of joining that organisation. The President made that statement with full knowledge of what the American Legion has accomplished, and to what extent its constitution, plane and ideals will accomplish in the future.

Any World War veteran of average intelligence who cares to inform himself in any degree whatsoever, cannot but come to the conclusion that the Legion is a worthy organisation, and is not only serving himself and his veteran companisation. However, those where the presulting himself and the confidence of the mean of the reconstitution, plane and ideals will accomplish in the future.

Our past, as mes who enlisted in the service of their country to save an ideal and to challenge the last grim gesture of futile power amount in the proposition of the confidence of the continuous continuous contacting the veterane, that most of them desire to join the American Legion and to continue the day to day. All they need is an invitation or a little pushing to make their should be most desirous of their security and they are a future to the present of their security and the present of their security and the confidence of their country to save and the confidence of their country to save and the confidence of the confidence o

Bare Stage is Setting for 'Kiki' Prologue

The stage of the Million Dollar Theater is bared to patrons who are witnessing the first performances of Norma Taimadge in "Kiki," which has just begun its run there.

The stage presentation preceding the photoplay is called "The Rechestral," and is a funny burlesque of what goes on behind the scenes when a big theater is preparing a show for public consumption. For this reason, the stage itself, mans settings or backdrops, with only a stray fiat here or there and its maze of overhead ropes, lights and other squipment, is revealed to the spectators and in this informal atmosphere, the action takes place. This Jack Partington production is said to be highly humorous and prepares audiences for the fine grain of humor which runs through the photoplay offering.

State Animal Hunter Reduces Lion Population of Ventura Cour

Five Mountain Lions in Seven Weeks is the record of Jay C. Bruce, State lion hunter, who returned recently from a hunt in the upper Sespe River country, back of Wheeler's Hot Springs in Ventura county. Photo shows Bruce with the skins of four of his victims hung from the car in which he carries supplies and equipment into the wilds. (Photo by Webb W. Wilcox.)

"SPARKLETTS"
Pure Artesian Water is being used today by thousands of discriminating people in their homes and offices. We are adding over 1000 new customers each month. Chart shows gross returns possible selling per 3,000 bet. © 50c is $ 450,000 a yr. 5,000 bet. © 50c is $ 150,000 a yr. 10,000 bet. © 50c is 1,500,000 a yr. 20,000 bet. © 50c is 2,000,000 a yr. 20,000 bet. © 50c is 2,000,000 a yr.

We have a daily supply of 237,-000 gallons or over 40,000 bottles per day of this wonderful pure wat-or which is often referred to as SPARKLING FLOWING GOLD This tremendous supply gushes direct from the granits to the bottle through non-corresive brane pipes by nature's own force. Selling bottled water is a profitable business. Let us show you how $100 can produce $520 yearly in this business.

If you have any capital, regard-less of the amount, let us show you the earning power in "SPARK-LETTS" for you.
